Conditions of Booking

1. Curry Farm is a Nature Reserve dedicated to the conservation of wildlife and particularly the promotion of interest in Butterflies and Moths. This means that although the paths around the reserve are regularly cut, there may be areas of nettle and thistle. If you wish to spend time walking the reserve please make sure that you have suitable footwear and trousers to avoid getting stung
2. The entrance to the house has two deep steps in through the door. This means that it is difficult to get a wheelchair through the entrance. Please let us know if any member of your party has a disability that we can help with.
3. Once we have received your booking and deposit we will confirm your holiday immediately. A provisional booking can be made by telephone.
4. If you wish to change your booking please inform us as soon as possible to avoid losing your deposit.
5. Please report any damages as soon as possible, as breakages can have an impact on the next guest
6. We cannot accept responsibility for the loss of visitor's belongings or for events beyond our control.
7. The personal information given by you will only be used by us for the purposes of your holiday
